#BlackMindsMatter — Is your school up to speed?

- Are contributions of Black families valued at your school?
- Are Black children treated fairly?
- Is Black culture visible in the classroom and curriculum?
- Are Black voices heard and included in decisions?

Come share and explore strategies for improving the experience of Black families in our SF public schools.
Together we can work for change. We want your voice to be heard.

How (Black) Family-Friendly Is Your School?
SF Families Union Meeting

February 13th, 2016 from 2:00-4:00 PM
Cobb Elementary, 2725 California St, SF
Childcare and snacks provided!

Learn more and RSVP. Go to: sffamiliesunion.org
Email us: sanfranciscofamiliesunion@gmail.com
Call us: 415-234-3045

The SF Families Union is a multiracial organization of public school families seeking racial equity in our city schools.

#BlackMindsMatter — Is your school up to speed?

- Are contributions of Black families valued?
- Are Black children treated fairly?
- Is Black culture visible in the classroom and curriculum?
- Are Black voices heard and included in decisions?

Come share and explore strategies for improving the experience of Black families in our SF public schools.
Together we can work for change. We want your voice to be heard.

How (Black) Family-Friendly Is Your School?
SF Families Union Meeting

February 13th, 2016 from 2:00-4:00 PM
Cobb Elementary, 2725 California St, SF
Childcare and snacks provided!

Learn more and RSVP. Go to: sffamiliesunion.org
Email us: sanfranciscofamiliesunion@gmail.com
Call us: 415-234-3045

The SF Families Union is a multiracial organization of public school families seeking racial equity in our city schools.